THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

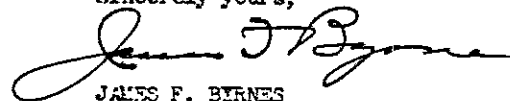

February 25, 1946

Dear Colonel McCormack:

I have your note and also the memorandum you sent me as to the proposal with reference to the Office of Research and Intelligence.

I cannot make a decision in this matter before you leave on the 1st, and I will not do anything about it while you are away.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES F. BYRNES

Colonel Alfred McCormack
Special Assistant to the Secretary
